GRAFTING CHARGE NOT SUSTAINED

So Decides Committee of Council Investigating "Jake" Raleigh.

EXAMINATION IS CONCLUDED

Notwithstanding Whitewash, the Fac tions of "American" Party Retain Opinion as to Supervisor's Guilt.

Two factions of the "American" party washed dirty linen for two hours in the council chamber last night before a crowd that included many of the party leaders. When the end came one faction was still firmly convinced that Jake Raleigh, the superintendent of streets, is guilty of grafting and incompetence, while the other faction was convinced of Jake's innocence, but was satisfied that Councilman L. J. Wood in starting the fight was actuated by spite and an endeavor to throw Jake out of his position to make room for ward heelers of his own choosing.

Eleven members of the council sat through the Raleigh-Wood wrangle. They were Black, Cowburn, Fernstrom, Ferry, Holley, Hall, Murdoch, O'Dounell, Raybould, Reedall and Wood-Black occupied the chair. Mayor Bransford was an interested listener. The council chamber was filled with city employes and other "American" workers. There was a good sprinkling of anxious ones who hoped to get on the city payroll through the influence of Councilman Wood.

The council considered the matter in committee of the whole. At the close Fernstrom moved that the committee arise and report to the council that the charges against Raleigh were not sustained. This motion carried without division and gives an idea of what the in starting the fight was actuated by tained. This motion carried without division, and gives an idea of what the final decision will be. It is expected to come up for final vote at the meeting Monday evening.

WITNESSES CALLED.

John Westerman was the first witness. He intimated that his partner, James Hardman, had thrown him down—that he had been induced by iriends of Raleigh's to remain away from the hearing. All he knew about the case was hearsay hearing. All he knew about the case was hearsay.

H. A. Zerbe, an employe of the city engineer's office testified concerning the removal of the sand on north Mala street that he charged 40 cents for one load and 25 cents for another. No record or these collections appears in the city records and there is nothing to show how extensive this system of business was conducted. He said the sand in question belonged to the city and was given to anyone who would haul it away. haul it away.

SAYS HE PAID FOR SAND.

James Hardman swore that he paid Jake Raleigh $4 for 24 loads of this sand, or at the rate of six loads for $1. He paid it, he said, in front of the Sliver Brothers' foundry. Every effort was made to shake this statement of Mr. Hardman's but he stuck to it to the end.

Ed Hill, Isaac Harmon and William

Ed Hill, Isaac Harmon and William Harmon told about the removal of the sand; that no city team hauled the sand, and that no city men assisted in the loading of the wagons.

Hyrum Smith and a number of others testified as to a conversation with Hardman in which he was supposed to have said that he paid no money to Raleigh; but as no two of these agreed, and as Hardman agreed with none of them, the testimony was not of value. Thomas Robinson told about calling

Thomas Robinson told about calling upon Hardman in company with Joe Redman, one of Jake Raleigh's foremen, to induce him to stay away from the hearing.

CARTER WAS THERE

Former Couniclman A. R. Carter told of being with Raleigh when the sand on North Main street was disposed of. He had no knowledge of Raleigh receiving money for city sand. L. H. Jones gave similar testimony, although as a city cumploye he acknowledged selling a load of the sand for 45 cents. He denied that all were permitted to haul away the sand. Preference, he said, was given a man named Ashion. was given a man named Ashton.

PROMISED A JOB.

Jack Watson testified that Jim Mor-ris, a son-in-law of Councilman Wood, told him that charges had been made against Raleigh, and that if he would help to make them stick he would get a job on the police force.

JAKE DENIES IN TOTO.

Jake Raleigh took the stand in his own behalf and denied all the charges made against him. Then S. P. Armstrong acting as attorney for L. J. Wood, was given 15 minutes in which to sum up the case. He insisted that although the evidence was not strong enough to convict Raleigh of crime it was strong enough to show that he was incompetent and dishonest, and that he should be removed.

SPITEWORK CHARGED. B. F. Johnson, summing up for Raleigh, said he believed that Armstrong honestly believed in the guilt of Raleigh, because by reading the papers he was convinced that there was graft in all departments of the "American" administration. Councilman Wood, he charaged with spite work, and with a desire to oust Raleigh to make room for his own henchman, Phillips.

WHITEWASH ANTICIPATED.

Fernstrom's motion was put and car-ried and the committee arose. It was the general impression at the close of the hearing that Councilman Wood had failed to sustain the charges made, and that the vote of the council next Mon-day night would result in a whitewash for the superintendent of streets.

VALUABLE REMEDY FOR COLDS AND CROUP.

W. W. Gray, an attorney at Wenatchee, Wash. says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for colds and croup with good results. I aim to always keen this remedy in the house." Sold by all druggists.

AMUSEMENTS.

to whom "Way Down East" is still the law and the prophets. The blass first nighter is not among them, and generally their ranks are confined to the upper portion of the house, which last night were black with humanity, while cown stairs there were quite a number of empty chairs. But the sort of people who revel in the situations of "Way Down East" are those to whom it is a delight to actors to play before—people who still read their Godey's who can weep with the heroine, rejoice with the pero and exectate the villain with more or less audibleness of expression. All these signs of approval and enjoyment were in evidence last night, and the stirring old play, which is well acted on the whole, still shows plenty of signs of life, though it is on to whom "Way Down East" is still plenty of signs of life, though it is on # its twentieth or thirtieth presentation in Salt Lake. The work was done by Miss Hopkins, whose delineation of Anna Moore is a striking copy of Phoebe Davis in the same part, by Mr. Seigel in the part of the old squire, whose efficiency was a little marred by having to play with a broken collar bone, as the result of an accident he sustained in San Francisco, by Mr. Heron who as Hi Holler was excruciatingly sunny to the galleries, and by Miss Conner as the village gossip. Some of the others were less efficient. The same bill goes tonight.

Paul Glimore opens tomorrow night at the Theater in his new play entitled "A Wheel of Love."

orpheum—Pater has an excuse for going to the Orpheum this week, for the children must see the circus. The headliner, "the equestrian queen," with her aggregation of intelligent horses and dogs that keep the orchestra in a constant state of "nerves;" Kronemann Brothers (topman, Birmingham, Eng., bottom man, Hamburg) comedy acrobats and balancers, and the stunning Manello and Marnitz troupe of three shapely women and a sad looking man, are all circus top-liners, in fact two of the acts were with Ringlings show last season. These three turns have not a dull moment in them. Edwin Stevens and Tina Marshall are back again in another of their clever sketches, but just why Stevens should waste his talents on "Rich Man, Poor Man, Beggar Man, Thief" when there are so many less talented people doing the same frothy stuff, is not apparent. It goes without saying that Stevens is good in the little protean sketch which runs the gamut of the emotions, but it is not Dickens—and when he was here last season he was threatening 20 minutes with Thackeray or Kipling, which would have been really worth while. Barry and Halvers, "late of Babes in Toyland," hit the audience hard, especially upstairs. Barry is one of the best low comedians and dancers the Orpheum has offered to date, while Huida Halvers looks better than she sings, Carcil and Cook should have opened the bill, because the first part of their turn might have been lost while the audience was settling down. As it is their Hoola-Boola song will be whistled ere the week is over. The kinodrome and Welhe's orchestra were fully up to the pace set by this week's excellent bill.

Grand—"Big Hearted Jim," the bill it the Grand for the first half of the week is a play of the west western.

Grand—"Big Hearted Jim," the bill at the Grand for the first half of the week, is a play of the west, western, and censequently it contains cowboys, Indians, plainsmen, Chinamen, etc., and the "girl." There was a good turnout last evening, and the piece met with the unqualified approval of the audience. Harry J. Jackson as Jim Saxon—"Big Hearted Iim"—and Bertha Julian, as Dora Carlyle, the "school ma'rm," shared the honors of the evening, and they eccived the support of a company hat is well above the average. The story has considerable of the elements of melodrama in it, though here is a good deal of a light vein running throughout. "The Denver Express" holds the boards for the last half of the week.

Lyric—"Rip Van Winkle" now running at the Lyric, is meeting with success. The children have turned out in great numbers at matinees and heir parents come along in the evenngs. The bill is a good one and when the low prices maintained by the theater are taken into consideration, the show deserves kind mention. A double cast is being used to present the same chartcters with 20 years difference in their ages after Rip's long aleep. Commencing with a matinee tomorrow afternoon the bill will be "A Daughter of Old Virginia," a war drama in four acts, with Miss Agnes Johns and W. R. Abrams in unusual roles.

JOHNSTON STOPS RUNAWAY.

He Ruins Uniform in Heroic Effort And is Suitably Rewarded.

At the risk of his life, Police Serway team belonging to Walker Bros., on Main street, about 4 o'clock yester-day afternoon. The team was driver-less and was dashing up the street at a great rate of speed when Sergeant Johnston and Sergeant Hempel made Johnston and Sergeant Hempel made an effort to stop it. Hempel missed the lines, but Johnston managed to get hold of them. He was dragged about a quarter of a block before he brought the frightened animals to a standstill. Johnston was not hurt, but his clothing was torn and covered with mud. The owners of the team rewarded the officer with money enough to purchase a new paiform.

W. C. T. U. TRIBUTE,

There was a largely attended meeting yesterday afternoon of the W. C. T. U. at the Tenth East street residence of Mrs. G. K. Murdoch, in memdence of Mrs. G. K. Murdoch, in memory of Miss Frances Willard, the late temperance leader who died Feb. 17, 1898. Miss Trask read a paper on Miss Willard's life, Mrs. H. W. Smith read a paper on the statue of Miss Willard, Mrs. C. A. Smith read a tribute to the deceased, and Mrs. Montgomery gave a dramatic reading. Plans are being prepared by the W. C. T. U. for a memorial meeting in honor of Gen. Neal Dow to be held next March. He was the father of the Maine law, and a noted apostle of temperance. # LANDS GAMBLERS

Last Night Kenyon Hotel Building Was Visited and Arrests Followed.

"NEWS" TIP GIVEN WEEKS AGO

One by One the Places Named by This Paper Are Being Successfully Raided.

Following the information furnished by the "News" the police department continues to "get busy" in raiding gambling joints and the results so far have proved what the "News" published to be true.

lished to be true.

Last night another house was visited and several arrests made. Officer Conyers recently appointed mounted patrolman, attired in plain clothes, made the arrests. The place was the Argonaut "club" in the Kenyon hotel building. Conyers, looking like a "live one" sauntered into the building and it was not long before he was invited to "sit in" a game in "Pat" Lynche's room. The officer went to the room and watched the games, but he did not take part in them. A poker game was going full blast and suddenly the officer surprised those present by remarking that all were under arrest. He displayed his badge of authority and marched four of the alleged gamblers to police headquarters. The men arrested gave the names of "Pat" Lynch, E. A. Grooch, Pat Hogan and L. Monroe. "John Doe" was a bit quicker than the others and when he identity of the officer became known he turned locksmith and made a boit for the door. At police headquarters Lynch put up $100 bail for himself and $25 for each of the others. He also deposited $25 for the appearance of John Doe.

SURE-ENOUGH GAME.

SURE-ENOUGH GAME.

Conyers says that while the game was in progress about $40 changed hands and Lynch acted as the banker. It is stated that the "club" is run by Charles Lynch, M. L. Freedson and "Umbfoot" Kelly. This place is one of the many named by the "News" several weeks ago.

On Friday night four gambling joints in the Chinese quarter were raifed. These places were also named by this paper. Yesterday morning a negrogambling joint on Commercial street was robbed by a gang of colored parasites and Chief Pitt smilingly remarked that the place would be "pinched" as a gambling den. If this is done no mistake would be made.

The fight being made against gambling in this city was started by this paper. Later Mayor Bransford demanded of Chief Pitt that the law be enforced—hence the raids.

enforced-hence the raids
